The Finborough Theatre receives no public or private funding from any source, and relies solely on the support of our audiences to bring you some of the most acclaimed fringe theatre in London. Please do consider supporting us by becoming a Friend. There are four categories of Friends – each commemorating a theatrical figure resident in nearby Brompton Cemetery – and each offering a wide range of benefits. All the funds raised by our Friends Scheme will be used to improve our technical facilities and the comfort of our patrons.
